Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion Feature

- As we move through these remaining weeks of Spring 2023, we wanted to share with you the faith-based and religious holidays and observances that may conflict with students' schedules.

The Islamic holy month of Ramadan started on March 22, at sunset (following the sighting of the moon over Mecca) and runs through the evening of Friday, April 21. The 30 days of fasting, prayer, reflection and community ends with the celebratory days of Eid al-Fitr starting on Saturday, April 22 or Sunday, April 23.

Passover

The Jewish holiday of Pesach or Passover begins at sunset on Wednesday, April 5, and concludes after nightfall on Thursday, April 13.

Good Friday

The Christian holiday of Good Friday is April 7 this year and occurs during the Christian Holy Week. Holy Week begins on Palm Sunday, April 2, and ends on Easter Sunday, April 9.

- ACT Human Rights Film Festival is an opportunity to watch impactful stories from filmmakers from around the world. ACT will present 19 award-winning documentaries from five continents on campus and at The Lyric from March 29th to April 2nd. More information here.
 - Our DE+I Toolkit is an excellent resource to utilize as you work to educate your employees and create an inclusive culture within your organization. We are in the process of reviewing and updating the toolkit to make it easier to navigate, but the toolkit remains accessible while these updates are ongoing.
